Sent webmail to iWireless. Basically: I can't log in, and their system doesn't recognize either of our email addresses (the one for my phone or the one for Harena's phone) for obtaining a password reset -- so either they can just go ahead and cancel it, or they can fix the email address so (theoretically) I can cancel it myself.

If no action on this by 12/6, put The Ducky on it.

Checking the online banking register, I only find one I-WIRELESS charge per month, which must be Harena's (still active). I have to assume mine is closed, despite the lack of formal communication from them.
